white rabbit productions

At White Rabbit, our approach is direct and uncluttered. Processes are streamlined, unnecessary layers are eliminated, and surprises are few, if any. We're able to maintain creative and financial control because there is no bureaucracy to bog down the creative process and no corporate pyramid to inflate production costs. It's the simplest, purest working relationship we can think of. Which is why we've aligned ourselves with the most experienced, talented and visionary people in the industry. Simply put, you get the real deal for every project not just because we have them on staff. Most are independent contractors who we hire on a per-project basis depending on their specialty. It's a partnership of seasoned veterans who have been directing, producing, designing, writing, and editing since forever and can probably do it in their sleep with their hands tied behind their backs. Of course, that hasn't been necessary at this point but we're prepared to put our money where our mouth is. They're that good. Of course, we also partner with Gen-Y creative types who are constantly pushing the envelope in search of fresh approaches in moving-image media. To get to the point, we like what we do and how we work. And you will too.
